

C.A.R.E. Safety Tips

Dealing Effectively with Hostility and Violence in the Workplace

Techniques for Gaining Cooperation

- Request, don't demand
- Don't make assumptions
- Remove your sunglasses
- Assume an active listening posture
- End the contact by offering your business card
- Turn the interaction over to another co-worker
- Paraphrase information back to clarify key points
- Take notes, make eye contact, and explain the process
- Refer to people as Mr., Ms, Sir, Ma'am or their first names

Contacting Hostile People

- Downplay your authority
- Stand at a right angle to the person
- Do not invade his or her personal space
- Have the person sit down and back in the chair
- Assume a non-threatening stance: Your body bladed, hands up, palms out, gesturing to move back
- Attempt to place a barrier between you and the hostile person
- Display a sense of confidence: Stand straight, make eye contact, speak slowly and firmly
