

Child Safety and Abduction Resistance Education for Parents

Offers information regarding:

Providing Age Appropriate Safety Training

- Safely conducting child self defense training
- The learning capabilities of children of different ages
- Conducting effective role-playing and practicing child safety scenarios

Stranger Offenders

- Changing how children view dangerous strangers
- Defining for children who is a dangerous stranger
- Presenting self-protection information in age appropriate terms

Child Safety Rules

- Playing outside
- If the child gets lost
- Being safe at home alone
- If the child is confronted or grabbed
- If the child is left unattended in public

Child Personal Defense Tactics

- The child's voice and physical resistance as a defensive tactic
- What the child is to do and where the child is to go if confronted or assaulted
- Using basic striking and kicking techniques as self-defense against an abduction
- The proper use of progressive child resistance when contacted, confronted, or attacked

Child Safety Education for Parents

- Protecting your child on-line
- Keeping your child safe while traveling
- Keeping your child safe in public places
- Keeping your child safe while Shopping
- Keeping your child safe while "Trick or Treating"